

Thornton Tomasetti Moves to New Downtown Chicago Office

Chicago, January 5, 2009 - The international engineering design firm of Thornton Tomasetti, Inc. has relocated to a new office at 330 N. Wabash Avenue, Suite 1500, Chicago, Ill. 60611.

The new location is 10,000 square feet larger than the office it had occupied since 1999 at 14 E. Jackson.

Phone and fax numbers remain the same: Phone 312.596.2000 and Fax 312.596.2001.

The new location was the former IBM Building, designed by Mies Van der Rohe and built in 1971.

Interior design of the new Thornton Tomasetti office was led by Garafalo Architects, in association with Powell/Kleinschmidt. In the design and operation of the new space, Thornton Tomasetti will seek certification for Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED).

###

About Thornton Tomasetti (www.ThorntonTomasetti.com)

Thornton Tomasetti provides engineering services to clients worldwide on projects of all sizes and complexity, with practices in building structure, building skin and building performance. From the tallest buildings and the longest spans, to innovative building systems and materials, we are committed to creating the best solutions through our technical ingenuity, pursuit of excellence, and responsiveness to client needs. Founded in 1956, today Thornton Tomasetti is a 650-person organization of engineers and architects collaborating from offices across the United States and in Asia, Europe and the Middle East.